*Please forward to Dr. Nyquist's office. Thanks!

Dr. Nyquist,

I'm thrilled to hear of the lives being impacted through Moody. Being an alumni, I have been greatly impacted as well and value deeply the contribution Moody made in my life and is striving to make in the lives of others.

I would ask that you (and the trustees) reconsider the pathway that Moody is taking to support and further the ministry of James MacDonald, Walk in the Word and even Harvest Bible Chapel. Much could be said here, but I'm sure this is already something you and the trustees have considered and researched thoroughly. I simply hope to register my voice and offer my support going forward.

Our prayers are with you!

JOHN 3:16-17

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.
For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through Him.

MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE
FROM THE WORD. TO LIFE.

a letter from the President

Dear Michael,

While attending Moody Bible Institute, Stephanie began mentoring at-risk youth when she co-led a Bible study at Cook County Detention Center in Chicago.

 Moody Graduate,
Stephanie Kaihoi

"That experience showed me that it's possible to minister to anyone," she says. "If you have a genuine, authentic love for Jesus and for people, they listen to you."

Here at Moody Bible Institute, we believe that hands-on experience is a critical part of preparing students for God's service throughout their lives.

I am proud to share that our 1,545 undergraduate students in Chicago provided 108,440 hours of service last year, effectively ministering to 281,733 people!

And it is all part of Moody Bible Institute's deeply held commitment to equip men and women with the knowledge of God's Word and the skills and experience necessary to powerfully proclaim His truth—across the globe, cultures and generations.

After graduating from Moody Bible Institute in 2007, Stephanie founded Legacy Living Ministries, which hosts conferences across the country, providing biblical teaching and discipleship training to teenage girls and their female youth leaders.

Stephanie's ministry—then and now—is so important and so needed. Please, give a gift to help us prepare more passionate, committed men and women to serve as Christian ministry leaders, people like Stephanie and so many others.
