Dear Lt. Jones:

I was wondering whether [REDACTED] has talked to one of the female deans (student affairs) about this situation. My recommendation would be that she do so. I would like to have a recommendation from student affairs as to what to do academically given the problems [REDACTED] has been experiencing.

As an alternative, [REDACTED] could write to me directly with a request to be considered.

Dr. Rist, My name is Jennifer Jones and I am a Lieutenant with the Police Department. I am writing you on behalf of a student named [REDACTED]. To briefly sum up [REDACTED]'s situation, Ms. [REDACTED] was sexually assaulted on campus by someone not associated with this campus or university. It actually got to the point [REDACTED] had to get a stalking/protective order out on one individual only to find she then started to get physically harassed by his friends. This also has been taking place on campus. [REDACTED] and I are in the process of still dealing with this situation that has been going on since February.

The reason I am writing to you is because [REDACTED] is not receiving any help from some people around her. [REDACTED] stopped going to her English class, English 102 M, W, F at 3:20pm with Jean Tweedy, because these males were coming onto campus because they knew [REDACTED]'s schedule and this is when they had access to her. Through all of this [REDACTED] has maintained an A in this class. Once I got involved and started to help [REDACTED], she returned to class. But as she was sitting in class one day, Jean Tweedy was handing out work and purposely passed over [REDACTED]. When [REDACTED] tried to talk with her and explain as best as she could what was going on, Mrs. Tweedy would not listen and made a comment to [REDACTED] like, "maybe you should not have let them have your GPA." [REDACTED] had 7 absences up until this point and they were all excused. Some were for Doctor's appointments all dealing with these incidents. [REDACTED] also has a 4.0 GPA at this point.

██████ was told she needed to email the Registrar's Office but she has still yet to hear something back from them. I spoke with ██████ today and at this point she would settle for just dropping the class, she just does not want an F.

I feel like ██████ has already been victimized enough and she has just been trying to do the right thing. Jean Tweedy was not sympathetic to ██████ at all; she would not even give her a chance to explain. ██████ has a hard enough time talking about what happened and she actually tried the best she could but was shut down. I don't know what can be done about this entire situation but I was hoping you could direct us down the correct path to help ██████. Thank you for taking the time to read my email and listen to ██████'s story.
