

Timeline of Albert Alegrete's Abuse

1981-1982

- Albert Alegrete molests at least five girls age 9-13

February 1982

- Alegrete attacks a preteen (one of the five identified victims); her mother begins a dogged search for the assailant

June 1982

- Alegrete confesses some child sex crimes to Grace Community Church Pastor Richard Hines

Late 1982

- Alegrete attempts to kidnap another girl

March 1984

- Preteen's mother sees Alegrete outside an elementary school and identifies him to police

Spring 1984

- Hines confronts Alegrete after noticing he's a potential GCC deacon candidate

April 11, 1984

- Alegrete turns himself in to police

May 1986

- Alegrete is sentenced to 44 years in state prison