to me

Hello Julie. I would have been glad to sit in with you and Lori on a balanced podcast where you moderate a discussion and I'm able to immediately provide the alternate side of the story instead of only hearing from the side Lori shares. It would be helpful for your listeners to know I would have been willing. I'm surprised to see that you have predetermined to continue forward with a story without knowing me and without having the full picture when I offered to be part of a dialogue with both of you. This is telling to me.

Given the fact that you're proceeding with a podcast with Lori with or without the other side of the story as well as the nature of the questions you sent that make a number of pointed accusations against Grace and me personally, I'm not going to provide further comment on this other than to say that Grace and I humbly and respectfully deny any allegations of any kind of wrongdoing whatsoever with respect to Lori Harding.
