I do not have the very first email that I sent to Robert. However, it was very brief and just said I needed him to call me. This is the response to that email. I am going to forward all of the email in chronological order.

Dear Cindy,

I called your number and left you a message. I received your email to Pastor Robert and wanted to talk with you about it. Would you call me at your convenience? My office number is 817-328-1000. Thanks.

Blessings,

Tom Lane

Dear Tom,

I appreciate your call; however, I emailed Robert and that is who my issues are with. If it is his plan to have a third party involved, I will do the same.

Cindy

Dear Cindy,

Robert and Debbie along with the Elders of Gateway Church, of which I am a part, desire to see you find help and healing. Your email came to me because it was sent to the general email address for Robert and not his personal email.

I contacted you for two reasons. First, I wanted to let you know that Robert has been completely open with the Elders of Gateway Church about his past and specifically about his indiscretion with you. Throughout the years, Robert has been open and accountable, doing what he could to find healing and restoration in his life. At the time of the indiscretion, Robert submitted to a two year process that included stepping out of vocational ministry. This healing process included meeting with you and your parents to ask forgiveness. He undertook other steps as he was directed by the Elders of Shady Grove Church. He continues to walk in a humble attitude of accountability today with the Elders of Gateway Church.

Second, I wanted to let you know that Robert and Debbie, along with the Elders of Gateway Church want you also to find healing. As he has previously stated on several occasions, Robert deeply regrets what took place and has repented to God, and you, along with your parents and sister, and to the Elders of both Shady Grove Church and Gateway Church. Over the twenty plus years since the indiscretion both, he and Debbie, have responded to you with caring concern but their responses apparently have not brought the healing you seek. We want you to get help and find healing. The "Blessed Life" that Robert writes about in his book and you refer to in your email, is not one of perfection but one of submission and obedience to God, something that he has made diligent effort to walk in, both in failure and success, for more than twenty years.

Robert and Debbie have done what they can to help you heal. Our church believes in healing, forgiveness, and restoration of all individuals. We would like to help you find that healing for your life. In sum, I responded to your email hoping to help you find the healing you so desperately are seeking. Please let me know if Gateway Church and its Elders can help you find healing in any way.

Blessings,

Tom

I am giving you one last chance to call me. You really have no idea how devastating it will be if you don't. I don't want Tom or anyone els to contact me. This is your issue not his.

Cindy,

You mentioned in your email that it was time for me to step up to the plate and bless you. What do you want me to do?

In another email, you said that I have no idea how devastating it will be if I don't contact you. What does that mean?

Robert

Robert,

Men that have over 100 counts of child molestation go to prison. Men who pastor churches that have over 100 counts of child molestation go to prison and pay punitive damages. You have not had to do either. I do not believe that is fair or right. You have had almost no consequences for your actions. I have suffered almost my entire life from the emotional damage you inflicted on me. If you want to know what I want, call me. Otherwise, I will proceed with what has been advised.

Twenty-three years after you began destroying my life, I am still dealing with the pain and damage you caused. I want some type of restitution. Pray about it and call me.

Cindy

This is the last communication that I have had with Robert. I did briefly speak to his attorney once. I called him directly because I was to embarrassed to call you and ask for help. All I said was I wanted to schedule a meeting with him and Robert. He told me to email him what it was regarding. I never followed through. I called you instead.

Cindy,

Debbie and I really do care for you and we sincerely want God's best for you. You see the blessings God has poured out on my life and conclude that it is because I have hidden my past. God does not work that way. He will not be mocked by deceit. I confessed my sins to you and your family 18 years ago and I have continued to share it with those who need to know as per the counsel of your father. I did what he asked me to do. I thought I obtained your forgiveness as well as your family's.

If you desire to make this public, I am also willing to do so. I would consult with your father first since he asked me not to share it publicly years ago. You should talk to your father also about disclosing the matter beyond those who already know since he has your best interest at heart and his counsel should, at the least, be considered, if not honored.

My attorney advises that if I pay you any money under a threat of exposure, you could be criminally prosecuted and Debbie and I do not want that. If you need more information, have your attorney contact mine. The contact information is at the end of this e-mail.

Robert
