

me Dec 14

to CBC, ginny.yurich ▾

So - nameless, faceless, and I may add cowardly 'elders'
- are you still standing by your position here??

"we affirm that our pastors and staff have consistently acted in accordance with Biblical principles and the ethos of discipleship that defines our community. While no human is free from imperfection, the evidence reviewed meticulously upheld the integrity of our church leaders."

Do you still stand by the 'investigation' you did into Matt's behavior? The fact that he was telling our 12 year old son he loved him and borderline forcing him to hug him, and then trying to make him feel guilty when he didn't??

Do you still affirm the behavior of your entire team of corporate rejects who try to treat God's church like a business, and the people in it like commodities? Who had the NERVE to try and call a meeting with an attorney and my 12 year old son so you could cover your asses. And then decide to just KICK US OUT OF CHURCH a month later instead of following up with us like you said you would to find an alternative.

You are ALL an unbelievably shameful group of jackals and you are now reaping the whirlwind due to your sinful and PRIDEFUL conduct.

I hope CBC crumbles and the earth around it is salted so no other church can grow there for a thousand years. God's work can and will continue in spite of people like you and the people of Livingston County will be better off without Steve Baker and his henchmen in positions of Biblical authority.

The public is going to know about how you were made aware of Matt's inappropriate behavior (on MANY levels) and instead of doing ~~something about it~~, you kicked us

10:06

"we affirm that our pastors and staff have consistently acted in accordance with Biblical principles and the ethos of discipleship that defines our community. While no human is free from imperfection, the evidence reviewed meticulously upheld the integrity of our church leaders."

Do you still stand by the 'investigation' you did into Matt's behavior? The fact that he was telling our 12 year old son he loved him and borderline forcing him to hug him, and then trying to make him feel guilty when he didn't??

Do you still affirm the behavior of your entire team of corporate rejects who try to treat God's church like a business, and the people in it like commodities? Who had the NERVE to try and call a meeting with an attorney and my 12 year old son so you could cover your asses. And then decide to just KICK US OUT OF CHURCH a month later instead of following up with us like you said you would to find an alternative.

You are ALL an unbelievably shameful group of jackals and you are now reaping the whirlwind due to your sinful and PRIDEFUL conduct.

I hope CBC crumbles and the earth around it is salted so no other church can grow there for a thousand years. God's work can and will continue in spite of people like you and the people of Livingston County will be better off without Steve Baker and his henchmen in positions of Biblical authority.

The public is going to know about how you were made aware of Matt's inappropriate behavior (on MANY levels) and instead of doing something about it, you kicked us out.

Games' up. We have the receipts.

...

me Dec 14

to Eric, Ginny ▾

So Eric,

Still stand by your decisions here, pal??

You are such a coward. You NEVER followed up like you said you would and instead took the WEAK way out and just sent us an email and certified letter revoking our membership from CBC. The audacity to do that is literally mind blowing.

How has that worked out for you, now that you have been employing an accused pedophile? You know the same person whose behavior we made SUPER clear 8 months ago was inappropriate with our 12 year old son??

You belong anywhere BUT working in a church because it is fake leaders like you that are an utter disgrace to the ministry and by your pride and arrogance you ENABLE people like Matt Swider to be horrible at their stupid job and worse, prey on children.

We went away quietly after your cowardly move to just oust us from the church but that's over now.

We have receipts and the public will KNOW that Matt's behavior was brought to your attention and instead of addressing it, you went after us.

You are not going to get to sweep this under the rug and pin this solely on Matt Swider, as much as he deserves to be gone. You ALL deserve to be gone and I will make it my mission to see that happen.

Righteous retribution is coming. You have screwed over the wrong family.

...